About ICDL (Upon completion of all 7 ICDL modules)

The International Computer Driving Licence™ (ICDL) is an internationally recognised qualification that enables people to demonstrate their competence in computer skills.

ICDL aims to:-

- Raise the level of IT knowledge and competency of all computer users;
- Improve productivity at work;
- Reduce IT support costs;
- Enable employers to invest more efficiently in IT; and
- Ensure that best practice and quality issues are understood and implemented.

ICDL is designed to help people both at work and at home. It confirms to potential employers that the person has a recognised, relevant and up-to-date qualification.

For those new to computers, ICDL will provide you with a solid foundation of computer skills helping you to competently and confidently use computers.
